CLERY ACT INFORMATION

As a prospective student, you have a right to receive a copy of the Campus Crime and Security Report in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act. The report includes information on the Campus' security policies and procedures and specific statistics for criminal incidents and arrests on Campus. This report may be requested from the Campus Dean or the Campus President, as set forth in the "Health, Security, and Safety" section of the Campus' College Catalog (the "Catalog"). This information may also be obtained at any time by visiting the following website: <http://studentinfo.remingtoncollege.edu>.

FERPA INFORMATION

Under the authority of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 ("FERPA"), as amended, a student has a right to inspect and review his/her education records; seek amendment to his/her records that the student believes to be inaccurate, misleading or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights; consent to the disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, unless FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent; or file a complaint with the Department of Education for failure to comply with FERPA. More detailed information regarding the foregoing is set forth in the "Examination of Students Records" section of the Catalog, as well as the Annual Notification of Rights under FERPA provided once each year to all enrolled students. Under applicable federal laws, the Campus may be required to provide or disclose the contents of the Student's records to governmental agencies or accrediting bodies.

I hereby apply for admission to Remington College. I understand that the admission requirements that must be satisfied to be a Student at the Campus are set forth in the Catalog. I understand that I will be required to complete a pre-admission interview and assessment with the Dean of Graduate Studies to evaluate my readiness for graduate studies, and the results of the assessment must demonstrate readiness for graduate studies in order to be eligible for enrollment. I also understand that, in order to be eligible for enrollment, I must: 1) provide documentation of baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university with a minimum GPA of 3.0., which must include official transcripts from every college or university attended; 2) be currently employed in a teacher/teaching/educator position in a K-12 setting as evidenced by submission of a current resume; and 3) have at least one reference, who is a leader within the applicant's current employment setting, complete Remington College's Special Education Master's Degree Program Reference Form, which must be submitted directly to the College by the applicant's chosen reference.

I also understand that, if I am eligible for enrollment, I must execute an Enrollment Agreement, which will set forth the terms of my enrollment in Remington College.

THE EXECUTION OF THIS APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A BINDING CONTRACT, AND APPLICANT SHALL HAVE NO FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS TO THE CAMPUS AS A RESULT OF EXECUTION OF THIS APPLICATION.
