**This program is not approved by any state for the purpose of qualifying an individual for licensure. In the states where the program is noted above as meeting licensure requirements, the determination the program meets licensure requirements is based on those states either not requiring completion of a state approved program in order to obtain licensure or having multiple paths to obtaining licensure with at least one path not requiring completion of a state approved program. Licensure requirements vary by state and students enrolling in the program are responsible for reviewing their states' requirements to ensure they can comply with those requirements and are eligible for licensure.*
